

May Hill W.I. Programme 2016

Visitors are always welcome to our meetings and social events.

Tues 26th January: 'Self Defence' Roger Sparks
Roger, a martial arts expert, gives us an insight into the psyche and methods of petty thieves and attackers. Awareness and a few simple actions can protect our personal space and property in every day life.

Tues 23rd February: 'Bird Migration' Paul Willerton
Why, how, where to, dangers and benefits, stopovers and habitat of UK and European bird migration. A lively presentation by local enthusiast. Talk and slides.

Tues 22nd March 'The History Of High Streets' Philip Wilkinson
Old Shop fronts and buildings which mostly still exist today throughout the UK. Philip is an Historical Architect and gives a fascinating talk with slides.

Tues 26th April 'Star College' Fund Raiser Naomi Boast and one of the students, on the work of the local vocational college for young adults with special needs.

Tues 24th May: 'Forestry Commission in the Forest of Dean -New Projects'
Sue Middleton. 50 Lottery Funded projects considered for development for 2017 – 2022. Meeting at F.C. West of England HQ, Visitors must prebook.

Tues 28th June: 'The Town Cryer of Cheltenham' Ken Brightwell
Comical rendition of his creation of the post and his experiences. Join us for our WI birthday evening in the Main Hall with a buffet supper. Tickets £5 for visitors

Tues 26th July 'Mosaics' Rachel Shilston Making an outdoor garden or indoor mosaic. At Yew Tree Farmhouse Studio. Limited space for visitors must prebook.

August: No meeting (Social events only)

Tues 27th Sept: 'Hereford Cathedral' Presented by Cathedral Guide Penny Platts

Tues 25th October: 'L.S. Lowry – Much More Than Just Matchstick People'
David Harrison M.A. Illustrated presentation about Lowry and Salford Quays

Tues 22nd November: 'Great Western Air Ambulance Service' Talk and film about this invaluable local service. Its our AGM at 7.30pm so visitors at 8pm please.

Tues 13th December: 'Christmas Party' Bring and share buffet and mulled wine.

Meetings start 7.30pm at May Hill Village Hall except where specified
Visitors, for a small fee, are always welcome to our meetings.
For further info. Anne 830081 or Anne 831271 email: mayhillwi@yahoo.co.uk

May Hill W.I social events 2016 open to all visitors:

Wed 9th March from 10 am Coffee Morning
At Ashleigh, May Hill. Book in advance or just come along £2.50
Relax over Coffee/tea and cake plus bring and buy.

Mon 11th April 11am Pasta Making and lunch at Rose Villa with John Celini
Have fun experimenting with this dough 'with a mind of its own'
Tickets £7 Limited space, must prebook.

Sun 15th May: 2pm BLUEBELL WALK and TEA PARTY. Guided walks on May Hill followed by 'afternoon tea'. Meet 2pm for 2.30pm for the walk choices.
Tickets £5 in advance or on the door. Mark your diary for this very popular event.

Tues 28th June: 7.30pm The Town Cryer of Cheltenham.
Evening of entertainment and buffet supper. Tickets £5. Please book in advance for catering numbers. A few spaces may be available last minute/ on the door.

Wed 6th July: from 10am Coffee Morning at the Poolside. 'Skansen' May Hill
Book in advance or just come along. £2.50 Coffee/tea and cake plus bring and buy

Thurs 27th October: 7pm 'Fun Family Quiz and Scrabble evening' with food.
Details later in the year. £5 adults and special price Family tickets available.

We have other outings and events for members only. If you would like to join us or would like any other information about our lively friendly WI contact

Anne Seymour 01452 830081 or Anne Dodson 01452 831271
email: mayhillwi@yahoo.co.uk

May Hill W.I.
7.30pm Tuesday 26th January 2016

'Self Defence'

Roger Sparks has studied all forms of martial arts. He then went on to study the psychology behind actions of aggression and control.
His talk is a fascinating insight into how we can all protect ourselves in every day life without using any form of physical or violent reaction.
Visitors of both sexes are welcome to come along.